

The Daily Waste

May 3, 2004

The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimated that 3.5 cents of every dollar of food stamp benefits issued each year from 1996 through 1998 was trafficked by stores – about $660 million.

And the Democrats want to raise your taxes to pay for more of this?

Source: (Statement of David Walker, comptroller general of the United States, before the House Budget Committee, June, 18 2003, pg. 18)

###

www.house.gov/mariodiaz-balart/watchers/wastewatch.htm